Boston, April 30, 1841.

Mr Garrison, Sir— I take this opportunity to address you a few lines, knowing that you always felt an interest in my welfare, and would do all in your power to assist me in time of trouble. It is well known to you that the Liberator Committee owe Rand and me together nearly three hundred dollars, and that it has been due us a year and a half, and we have not received a cent of it. Mr Rand's circumstances I do not know any thing about, but for myself I am doing nothing, and do not see any prospect of work before me. I have been out of work now sometime, and if I had what is my due from the Liberator, I could make out to live a short time longer. Cannot something be done, so that some of the money may be forthcoming. Will you answer this, and direct 75, Prince street.

Yours respectfully

Benj. F. Hatch.

William L. Garrison, Esq.

Present.
